Australia: Teachers union calls strike in bid to regain credibility

Erika Zimmer
11 September 2003

In the face of an escalating series of government attacks on public education in Australia, teachers' union leaders in the state of New South Wales have proposed a one-day strike on September 17. But the action will be confined to the single issue of salaries.

To contact the WSWS and the Socialist Equality Party visit:

wsws.org/contact

© World Socialist Web Site