

French government uses Marseille bus burning to step up state repression

Antoine Lerougetel
7 November 2006

The October 28 torching of a bus by youth in Marseille, France's second city, resulting in 60-degree burns for a young African woman, has been seized upon by the Gaullist government of President Jacques Chirac to expand the repressive powers of the state.

To contact the WSWWS and the Socialist Equality Party visit:

wsws.org/contact