

Meet the candidates: Questions & Answers on the Socialist Equality Party's program

6 November 2007

Nick Beams, Socialist Equality Party national secretary and SEP candidate for the Senate in NSW, will address Question & Answer sessions in Sydney, Newcastle and Melbourne next week to discuss all aspects of the socialist and internationalist program being advanced by the SEP in the 2007 federal elections. Beams will be joined by other SEP Senate and House of Representatives candidates.

The meetings will provide an opportunity for SEP supporters, readers of the WSWS and members of the public, to ask questions about the SEP's program and policies. Beams will introduce the discussion with a brief outline of the key political and historical issues raised by the US-led war on Iraq, and the advanced preparations for an assault on Iran.

The Q&A sessions will be held in Blacktown, Marrickville, Newcastle and North Melbourne. The SEP extends to all WSWS readers a warm invitation to attend.
