

Video: Michigan Chrysler workers denounce pay cuts

18 December 2008

The World Socialist Web Site sent a team of reporters to Sterling Heights, Michigan, to speak to workers at a Chrysler assembly plant about talk of further pay cuts and plant closings. Democrats and Republicans are demanding that any loans to the auto industry to prevent bankruptcy must be accompanied by massive attacks on auto workers. Many workers expressed anger at the prospect of severe cuts in pay when banks have received hundreds of billions of dollars, with no strings attached.
