

Video: German SEP candidate calls for defence of jobs at Opel

26 September 2009

Dietmar Gaisenkersting, a candidate of the German Socialist Equality Party (Partei für Soziale Gleichheit—PSG) in the current German federal election, addresses the situation at GM-Opel. He spoke outside the GM Opel plant in Antwerp, Belgium, which is expected to close down as part of the GM-Opel-Magna takeover plan.

Gaisenkersting is one of the PSG's four candidates in the parliamentary elections being held this Sunday, September 27.
