

German Socialist Equality Party election video

2 September 2009

The following video spot has been produced by the German Socialist Equality Party (Partei für Soziale Gleichheit—PSG) as part of its campaign for the German federal election which takes place on September 27. In accordance with German electoral law, every party accepted to take part in the election is allowed to produce its own spot, which is shown on four occasions on German television and played four times on radio prior to the election.

The PSG is standing its own candidates in Germany's biggest state, North Rhine-Westphalia, and the city-state of Berlin.

First speaker: Christoph Vandreier, PSG executive committee member

Second speaker: Fabian Reymann, PSG executive committee member and candidate in Berlin

Third speaker: Ramiya T, a PSG member

Fourth speaker: Ulrich Rippert, candidate of the PSG in Berlin and chairman of the PSG
