

Boron, California mine workers denounce company lock-out

20 February 2010

The WSWWS spoke to some of the 570 Rio Tinto Borax workers in Boron, California who have been locked out by the company since January 31. The lockout followed a failed five-month attempt to negotiate a new contract by the International Longshore and Warehouse Union (ILWU) Local 30.

See Also:

Rio Tinto Borax locks out 570 California mine workers

[6 February 2010]

To contact the WSWWS and the Socialist Equality Party visit:

wsws.org/contact