Mehring Books is pleased to announce that for a limited time it will continue taking advance orders for the new paperback edition of Witnesses to Permanent Revolution at the special discounted price of $29.95.

The documents compiled in this volume by historians Richard B. Day and Daniel Gaido provide a comprehensive view of the controversies and polemics surrounding the origins of the theory of permanent revolution and testify to the intellectual depth of the discussion that took place in the German and Russian socialist movement between 1903 and 1907.

In addition to the decisive contribution made by Leon Trotsky, the work acquaints readers with the writings of other important socialist thinkers, including Franz Mehring, Rosa Luxemburg, Karl Kautsky, Alexander Helphand (Parvus) and David Riazanov.
