

Video Report: Youth speak on the Democratic Party and socialism

Andre Damon, C. W. Rogers
11 October 2011

The ongoing occupation of Wall Street has given expression to the opposition to the banks of working class people throughout the United States and internationally. Tens of thousands have travelled hundreds of miles to stay for a day or two before returning to school or work. The World Socialist Web Site spoke to several youth on the causes and implications of the struggle against Wall Street.
