

SEP presidential candidate Jerry White speaks on Obama's attack on auto workers

19 May 2012

In this video, Socialist Equality Party presidential candidate Jerry White visits the site of the General Motors Pontiac East Assembly Plant, which was closed in September 2009, eliminating 1,100 jobs, and speaks of the impact of Obama's attack on auto workers, the complicity of the United Auto Workers union, and the fight to build new organizations of struggle as part of a socialist movement of the working class.
