

SEP presidential candidate speaks on Wisconsin public radio

3 May 2012

After a successful public meeting at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee last week, Socialist Equality Party presidential candidate Jerry White was interviewed by 89.7 WUWM, the Milwaukee Public Radio Station.

Mitch Teich of the “Lake Effect” program asked White for his assessment of the 2012 elections, the SEP campaign and the party’s policies concerning health care, the social crisis and the danger of war. White also spoke on the lessons of the mass protest movement that erupted in Wisconsin in the winter of 2011.

The interview, which was aired Wednesday, can be heard here:
