Why I read the WSWS

22 June 2013

Since first “discovering” the World Socialist Web Site several years ago, I have become an enthusiastic daily reader of WSWS coverage of world events. They have proven themselves to be a reliable, intelligent, objective, radical and alternative source of information. There has to be a better way forward for mankind, an alternative vision based on brotherhood, cooperation and respect for differences in ideas, culture and religion. The dark vision of the current power elites, who see domination and destruction as the only way, must be eradicated by a conscious effort of the world working class to create a world based on human values of equality and social justice for all. May that vision be realized.
