

Video: Rally participants speak on the demonstration in defense of the DIA

10 October 2013

On October 4, the Socialist Equality Party and the International Youth and Students for Social Equality held a demonstration, attended by hundreds of people, against the plans of Detroit Emergency Manager Kevyn Orr to sell off art from the Detroit Institute of Arts. In this video, workers and young people who participated in the demonstration expressed their opposition to the attack on culture, and gave their thoughts on the significance of the rally.
