

Video: Detroit tenants determined to fight eviction

3 February 2014

More than one hundred tenants of the Griswold apartment building in Detroit, mostly seniors and disabled workers, have been given until March 31 to vacate their homes. The building has been purchased and is being renovated—with the tenants still inside—as part of plans by billionaire developers to rid the area of low-income residents and transform it into an upscale housing and entertainment district.

To contact the WSWS and the Socialist Equality Party visit:

wsws.org/contact