

Video: Detroit resumes water shutoffs

Tim Rivers

13 September 2014

After a brief pause, water shutoffs to poor residents resumed in Detroit last week. Speaking at the city's West Side payment center and along the waterfront downtown, residents denounced the city's drive to shut off water service to its most vulnerable people. Residents noted that the growth of economic inequality paralleled the increasingly dictatorial character of American society.

To contact the WSWs and the
Socialist Equality Party visit:

wsws.org/contact