Video: Detroit workers speak on a Christmas of inequality in America

Zac Corrigan, Jerry White
24 December 2014

Six years since the crash of 2008, the stock market is soaring to record highs and wealth inequality is at an historic high. At the same time, wages are stagnant and the Detroit bankruptcy has paved the way for pension cuts throughout America. In this video, Detroit workers describe the social conditions they face this Christmas.

To contact the WSWS and the Socialist Equality Party visit:

wsws.org/contact

© World Socialist Web Site