

Detroit residents speak on the resumption of water shutoffs

Seraphine Collins and Zac Corrigan
16 May 2015

On Monday, the city of Detroit began a new round of mass water shutoffs, threatening to stop water service for as many as ten percent of the city's households. In this video, residents speak out against the shutoffs and discuss the connection between the attack on working-class living standards and the militarization of society.

To contact the WSWs and the Socialist Equality Party visit:

wsws.org/contact