

Video: The battle facing US autoworkers

Jerry White, Zac Corrigan
10 August 2015

Next month, the contracts of 140,000 United States autoworkers will expire. After decades of concessions, workers want to fight to recoup their losses and secure real gains.

Workers face a vicious gang-up of the bosses, the government and the unions, which are determined to make further cuts to workers' wages and benefits in the pursuit of ever higher profits for wealthy shareholders. This video explains the way forward for autoworkers and all workers.
