

Urdu translation of Socialism and the Fight Against War

27 April 2016

The World Socialist Web Site is pleased to announce publication of an Urdu translation of “Socialism and the Fight Against War: Build an International Movement of the Working Class and Youth Against Imperialism!”

Issued by the International Committee of the Fourth International in February 2016, “Socialism and the Fight Against War” outlines a socialist strategy to oppose the global drive to war, which it calls a “conspiracy of the capitalist elites.”

It provides a scientific explanation of the objective roots of war in the crisis of world capitalism and elaborates a strategy to oppose “the geopolitics of the capitalist class” based on the “map of the class struggle”: the revolutionary mobilization of the working class to put an end to capitalism and the outmoded nation-state system in which it is rooted, and the establishment of a global socialist economy based on equality and scientific planning.

Urdu is Pakistan’s national language and is also spoken by tens of millions of people in India.

The Urdu version of the “Socialism and the Fight Against War” can be accessed here.
