

SEP election meeting in Detroit on May 31 to be streamed live on Facebook

30 May 2016

The May 31 SEP election meeting in Detroit—Battlefield Detroit: Unite all workers in a fight back!—will be streamed live on Facebook. SEP presidential candidate Jerry White and vice presidential candidate Niles Niemuth will be speaking at the meeting.

The meeting will begin at 7:00 pm Eastern Time (time conversions can be found here).

The live video stream will be hosted on the SEP (US) Facebook page: fb.com/sepus. If you wish to be notified of the live streaming video, follow the SEP on Facebook and sign up for the Facebook event page by selecting “going” from the status drop-down menu.

Viewers will be able to participate in the discussion by liking, posting comments and sharing the live stream during the meeting. If you are unable to watch live, the video will be saved on the SEP Facebook timeline for later viewing.

For those in the Detroit area, you can attend the meeting in person:

Tuesday, May 31, 7:00 pm
Wayne State University
General Lectures Room 150
5045 Anthony Wayne Dr, Detroit
