

Attend the Grenfell Fire Forum hosted by the Socialist Equality Party (UK)

29 September 2017

The Socialist Equality Party (UK) is holding the first in a series of regular meetings on the Grenfell Tower fire on September 30 at the Maxilla Hall Social Club, North Kensington, London.

The first meeting will discuss the opening of the Grenfell Tower Fire inquiry and the way forward in opposing the government's cover-up and establishing the truth about the fire and those responsible.

The public inquiry, led by Sir Martin Moore-Bick, began its deliberations with a preliminary hearing on September 14. The SEP has warned that the inquiry is a fraud—aimed at covering up for those responsible for the economic, social and political decisions that led to at least 80 people dying.

We will dissect the inquiry and expose its lies and evasions. This work of political exposure is an essential part of mobilising workers and youth independently of the political establishment to secure genuine justice for all those affected. All are welcome to this democratic forum for discussion.
