Socialism: What it is and how to fight for it

18 September 2018

Niles Niemuth is the Socialist Equality Party's candidate for Congress in Michigan's 12th district. Niles is running on a socialist, anti-war and anti-capitalist program in the interests of the working class in Michigan and around the world.

There is growing interest in socialism among broad sections of the population. Millions of workers and young people, fed up with inequality, war, and authoritarianism, are looking for a way to oppose capitalism. Many are asking the question: What is socialism? In this series of meetings, Niles will answer this question and explain how socialism can be achieved today.

More meetings and events will be added to the schedule over the next seven weeks of the campaign. To stay up to date on meetings, campaign events, or to get involved and donate to the campaign, visit Niles2018.com and follow Niles on social media.
