

Socialist Equality Party candidate for Congress Niles Niemuth speaks at televised forum

6 October 2018

On Friday, October 5, Socialist Equality Party candidate for Congress in Michigan's 12th district Niles Niemuth participated in a televised candidate forum organized by the League of Women Voters. The forum was livestreamed on YouTube and broadcast on local television by Community Television Network.

Also participating in the forum were Democrat Debbie Dingell, the incumbent; Republican Jeff Jones; and United Auto Workers union official Gary Walkowicz, representing the pseudo-left Working Class Party.
