

Mandarin announcement of Australian lecture series on 70th anniversary of the Chinese Revolution

27 September 2019

We are posting below a Mandarin translation of the announcement for a lecture series organised by the International Youth and Students for Social Equality (Australia) entitled, “70 years since the Chinese Revolution: How the struggle for socialism was betrayed.”

The lectures, which will be delivered by Peter Symonds, are being held at university campuses in Brisbane, Newcastle, Sydney and Melbourne, and at Victoria University in Wellington. Symonds is a member of the international editorial board of the WSWS and a frequent writer on political developments throughout Asia, including China. The English-language announcement is available here.
