Oppose the unsafe reopening of UK schools and universities! Attend Online Educators Rank-and-File Committee meeting

18 September 2020

We urge educators and students in Britain to register and participate in the online forum of the Educators Rank-and-File Committee being held on Saturday, September 19 at 2 p.m. The reopening of schools in just a short two weeks has led to outbreaks of infections in over 1,100 schools across the UK.

Testing is on the verge of collapse as thousands wait for days to get an appointment and the track and trace system is in an utter state of chaos. The infection rates are doubling every week, hospital admissions are on the rise and deaths are increasing. All of this was foreseeable and predictable. The government's response, backed and supported by the Labour Party and the trade unions, is to continue with the deadly reopening of schools and universities in the interests of continuing the production of wealth for the rich.

The Socialist Equality Party is providing the only viable opposition to this deadly agenda through the formation of independent educators rank-and-file safety committees to protect lives.

Please register here to attend and participate in this critical event.
