

Watch: Australian students and youth oppose war drive against China

22 April 2021

The International Youth and Students for Social Equality (IYSSE) in Australia and New Zealand is holding an online public meeting this Saturday at 4pm (AEST) to discuss the mounting threat of a US-led war against China. Speakers will trace the war drive to its roots in the deepening breakdown of global capitalism, expressed most sharply in the coronavirus pandemic, and will outline the socialist and internationalist perspective that must guide the emerging struggles of the working class against war. In this video, IYSSE members and supporters condemn Australia's central role in the US war drive, and speak on the need for an international anti-war movement.
