David Moore, the Socialist Equality Party’s candidate in the California gubernatorial election, participated in a debate with other candidates on the “Bad Faith” podcast this week. The podcast was hosted by Briahna Joy Gray and included candidates Michael Loeb of the California National Party and Daniel Kapelovitz of the Green Party. Gray was the national press secretary for the 2020 Bernie Sanders presidential campaign.

In the discussion, Moore spoke about the necessity for workers in California and internationally to fight to eradicate COVID-19 through the methods of class struggle and the fight for socialism.
