

No Third World War! Against war in Ukraine, NATO aggression and German armament!

Christoph Vandreier, Johannes Stern
24 March 2022

It is high time to build an international anti-war movement opposing NATO aggression, the Ukraine war and German militarism. Such a movement must unite Russian and Ukrainian workers and workers around the world in a joint struggle against capitalist warmongering on the basis of a socialist programme.

The chairman of the Socialist Equality Party (SEP), Christoph Vandreier, and the editor-in-chief of the German-language edition of the World Socialist Web Site, Johannes Stern, explain this perspective and analyse the historical and political background to the Ukraine war.
