This video describes the current surge of the COVID-19 pandemic, which has gone almost entirely unreported in the media as cases, hospitalizations and deaths are once again rising throughout the world. It also reviews the immense societal impacts of Long COVID and outlines a strategy of what must be done to end the pandemic. We urge all of our readers to share this video as widely as possible with friends, family, coworkers and across social media. The video has subtitles in German, French, Spanish, Portuguese, Turkish, Tamil, Sinhala, Russian, Polish and Italian.
