

IYSSE video statement on its electoral success at Humboldt University

IYSSE at Humboldt-University of Berlin
25 July 2022

The International Youth and Students for Social Equality (IYSSE) at Humboldt University are set to enter the student parliament (StuPa) with all three of their list's candidates. In this video, deputy elect Gregor Kahl explains the significance of the IYSSE's electoral success and their socialist perspective.

The IYSSE will use their renewed entry into the StuPa to intensify the struggle against militarist ideology and historical falsification at Humboldt University. In doing so, they will orient students and youth to the mass protests and strikes of workers that are developing around the world. Only an international socialist movement of the working class against capitalism can stop the development of World War III and a renewed regression into barbarism.
