On Saturday, thousands of people demonstrated in Liverpool, in the North West of England, against Israel's genocidal war against Gaza. The protest was one of many held in towns and cities across Britain this weekend. Demonstrators assembled at the Catholic Cathedral and marched through the city centre to Derby Square where a rally was held.

Socialist Equality members distributed hundreds of copies of the WSWs article, “Israel's Jabaliya refugee camp bombing: A new stage of imperialist barbarism”.

A WSWs reporting team spoke to a number of those protesting. Their video interviews are posted below.
