Our reporters
25 April 2025

Morgan Peach, the Socialist Equality Party's candidate for the seat of Calwell in the outer northwestern suburbs of Melbourne, gave several interviews on Wednesday, during which he sounded the alarm on the threat of war, capitalist breakdown, dictatorship, and the SEP being entirely excluded from the official election campaign.

Peach attended a Special Broadcasting Service (SBS) "Election Exchange" at Broadmeadows central shopping centre, along with other candidates for Calwell. He was interviewed by several SBS reporters, including Kerri-Lee Barry from SBS NITV radio, Olivia Di Iorio, from SBS Examines and Nejat Basar from the SBS Turkish radio service.

Below are some excerpts of Peach's remarks.
