

VIDEO: Trump's war on free speech—The case of Momodou Taal

3 June 2025

The Socialist Equality Party (UK) hosted a public meeting in London May 31, addressed by Momodou Taal, the British-Gambian student who challenged US President Donald Trump's unconstitutional war on free speech and the right to protest the Gaza genocide. Taal was forced to leave the United States to avoid arrest and detention by Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE) agents in retaliation for his lawsuit against Trump. Joining Taal on the platform were his lawyer, Eric Lee, and Joseph Kishore, national secretary of the Socialist Equality Party in the US.
