Over the weekend, mass anger erupted across the United States as more than 1,000 protests and walkouts were held in cities and towns nationwide against the police murder of Renee Nicole Good by federal immigration agent Jonathan Ross in Minneapolis.

World Socialist Web Site reporters intervened at protests across the country speaking with workers and students opposed to the federal occupation of Minneapolis and attacks on immigrants.

Detroit

“We have video evidence that we can clearly see with our own eyes. The regime is willing to lie about it to protect its own interests... When you think about it, what they did to Maduro is the same thing.”

Los Angeles

“It was outright murder... By initiating wars in other states, [Trump] is telling ICE and everyone around him you can be as violent as you want and you’ll have no repercussions. We need to focus on the working class... the billionaires are not doing anything to help us.”

“We need to stop ICE and all the fascists in government right now from entering our communities and hurting our neighbors. I don’t think [the Democrats] have been doing a lot to help... They don’t actually stand for what they say they stand for.”

San Diego

“ICE is not judge, jury and executioner. There’s legal due process... I think they’re definitely terrorizing communities.” “Trump needs to go. He’s trying to be Hitler. But we’re not following him.”

“[Vance] is a shame to our country. It’s abhorrent. [Senator Chuck] Schumer and [Rep. Hakeem] Jeffries are opposed to abolishing ICE. But we have to fight back. What we’re doing now is not enough.”

New York City

“We’ve literally got American citizens being shot dead for trying to peacefully observe an ICE protest... We shouldn’t be invading other countries.”

“We are against the wars and the horrible things ICE is doing... This generation is not going to let anything happen that can hurt other working class people... Renee Good was a wonderful person and she’s now an example of what this country is capable of.”
