

"We cannot have oligarchy": Protesters oppose Trump's visit to Detroit

Our reporters
14 January 2026

Hundreds of protesters demonstrated on Tuesday, January 13, outside of the MotorCity Casino in Detroit where President Trump delivered a speech to the Detroit Economic Club. The protesters included young people, workers and others opposed to Trump's attack on basic democratic rights, his invasion of Venezuela, witch-hunting of immigrants and support for the ICE murder of Renee Nicole Good in Minneapolis last week.

Detroit police, deployed by Democratic Mayor Mary Sheffield, assaulted and arrested at least two protesters.
